

OLD WEST GUNFIGHT

Enliven your cocktail reception with a brief OLD WEST GUNFIGHT show. When two rough cowpokes begin flirting with your female guests, it's clear that trouble's a brewin'. The Marshal is forced to wade into the fray and fire his peace-maker, silencing all chatter at the event. A loud confrontation ensues and, of course, it leads to gunplay. Shots are fired, people are killed and the Marshal saves the day.

Once the smoke clears, the OLD WEST GUNFIGHT actors move to a special station to teach all of your guests how to draw and shoot an old west handgun against a clock with our OLD WEST QUICK DRAW. Of course, everyone is only shooting blanks, so this is the only activity where alcohol and firearms mix flawlessly.
