

CHICKEN SH*T BINGO

Here's a fundraiser that's sure to ruffle some feathers – chicken feathers, that is. Participants buy squares on a large game board, while spectators watch like foxes at a hen house. A live chicken "selects" the winning squares by dropping its unique mark on the game board. CHICKEN SH*T BINGO is a sure bet to crack up your guests three or four times a night.

A TEXpert caller will be on hand to announce the drop. The board and cage can sit on a 6' or 8' table and about a 6' x 6' space, with room for spectators. And, there will be spectators.

CHICKEN DROP BINGO, where Number 2 is Number One and Turd Place is always a winner!
